

Hazardous Materials

Health profession students will train and eventually work in an environment that includes chemical products. Arizona College provides Material Safety Data Sheets (MSDS) in every laboratory. These are documents that contain information on the potential hazards (health, fire, reactivity and environmental) and how to work safely with the chemical product. It also contains information on the use, storage, handling and emergency procedures all related to the hazards of the material.